Vacant & Abandoned Property Action Council

June 25, 1010

In the summer of 2005 the Vacant & Abandoned Property Action Council ("VAPAC") was convened jointly by the Cleveland Neighborhood Development Coalition (CNDC) and Neighborhood Progress, Inc. (NPI). The Coordinating Council is composed of institutions, organizations and agencies that allocate resources and/or programming to address prevention and reclamation of vacant and abandoned property in Greater Cleveland.

The "members" of the Coordinating Council are the following institutions, organizations and agencies:

- City of Cleveland - Mayor’s Office
- City of Cleveland - City Council
- City of Cleveland Municipal Housing Court
- Cleveland Neighborhood Development Coalition
- Cuyahoga County - Commissioner’s Office
- Cuyahoga County - Treasurer’s Office
- Cuyahoga County - Foreclosure Prevention Program
- Cuyahoga County - Prosecutor’s Office
- Cuyahoga County Land Reutilization Corporation
- Enterprise Community Partners
- Federal Reserve Bank
- First Suburbs Consortium
- Neighborhood Progress, Inc.
- Ohio Attorney General’s Office

The Council is staffed by NPI, in collaboration with CNDC, The Law and Public Policy Clinic, Cleveland Marshall College of Law and The Center on Urban Poverty and Community Development, Case Western Reserve University. Frank Ford of NPI is the Chair of VAPAC.

The purpose of the Council is to encourage collaboration and coordination of resources and programming among key institutions and organizations and to provide leadership on issues related to prevention and reclamation of abandoned property. VAPAC members meet monthly in order to discuss and strategize on solutions to the varied problems associated with vacant and abandoned property within the Greater Cleveland area, including issues related to code enforcement, foreclosure, land banking, flipping, title research, and legislation.
NPI submits this request for $35,000 in grant funding to support VAPAC. These grant funds will help support the costs associated with the staffing and administration of VAPAC, such as the organization and planning of monthly VAPAC meetings – including setting agendas and arranging logistics, preparing and circulating meeting notes, arranging for guest speakers and presentations, and preparation of materials, and chairing meetings – including oversight of VAPAC meetings, organizing working groups and subcommittees, acting as the representative of VAPAC, and preparing outreach materials.
